King Ferdinand Delays Entry Into Hungary; Jews Will Be Protected From Pogroms, Officials Say

Rumanians Control City

Allied Representatives and Archduke Joseph Said to Have Reached Agreement

VIENNA, Aug. 9.—A state of siege has been proclaimed in Budapest, according to advices received here.

It is reported that, in view of the progress which had been made in Hungary, the king, according to the terms of the peace conference, had been invited to enter the city, and that the king, according to the terms of the peace conference, had been invited to enter the city, and that the king, according to the terms of the peace conference, had been invited to enter the city.

No Deal Yet King Ferdinand, who was to have arrived in Budapest yesterday, has postponed his visit, and it is now expected that he will enter the city on Monday.

The report that a union between Hungary and Rumania in the form of a dual kingdom was being planned has been denied by the Hungarian government.

An official Rumanian statement also received by way of Rome declares that reports of a union between Hungary and Rumania are unfounded.

"We are at a loss to understand why the Allies, and the Americans above all, should expect Rumania for its action in defeating the Bolsheviks in Hungary," said Nicholas, king of the Rumanian peace delegation today.

"We feel that we have done the peace conference and the entire world a service by having the Hungarian government, which was the only government in the world which was not a puppet government, to set up a representative government."

Rumania's course in Hungary is limited to maintaining order, it was said today by M. Valda, of the Rumanian delegation, in a statement to the press.

"We have no intention of interfering in the internal affairs of Hungary," said Valda, "but we will do everything in our power to maintain order and to protect the interests of the Rumanian population in Hungary."

Rumania's course in Hungary is limited to maintaining order, it was said today by M. Valda, of the Rumanian delegation, in a statement to the press.

Several newspapers, reviewing the Hungarian situation, said a series of three council sessions by the Inter-Allied Supreme Council to President J. A. C. Bismarck, of Rumania.

The first of these sessions, the Rumanian government, the second advised the Rumanian cabinet that the Allies could not approve the terms of the proposed Rumanian armistice with Hungary.

The Rumanian government in Budapest are allowing the Hungarians only 200 gendarmes to patrol the city, according to news from American officers there.

Peace Council to Strive to Enforce Will by a Threat to Make People 'Outcasts'

PARIS, Aug. 9.—Former Emperor Charles, of Austria-Hungary, was begged by Magyar patriots to mount the Hungarian throne when the fall of the Peidl ministry was determined upon, according to a dispatch to the "Journal" from Zurich.

The Duke of Hohenberg, son of Archduke Franz Ferdinand, whose assassination at Sarajevo in 1914 was the immediate cause of the great war, also refused the crown, according to the dispatch.

ment, whose existence served as a pretext for the Rumanian policy of conquest, why do the "Temps" and "Debut" unreservedly approve the Rumanian armistice, the clauses of which seriously prejudice the peace treaty still to be drawn up, and by dispossessing Hungary must provoke resentment by the other Allies to whom reparations also were due?

Argentine Marines Board German Ships

BUENOS AIRES, Aug. 9.—Two interned German vessels in the harbor at Rosario, whose captains recently refused to permit Allied representatives to inspect the vessels, were boarded yesterday by the prefect of the port of Rosario and a detachment of twelve armed marines.

Supreme Body Challenged

Other means of meeting the Hungarian situation were under consideration today, as members of the council of the supreme body had been challenged and that unless effective measures could be taken to enforce obedience to Allied will, the success of any system of central international authority might be considered endangered permanently.

Lacking physical means of persuasion, even if its use were considered advisable, the peace council will endeavor to enforce its will on the Rumanians by threatening to make the country an "outcast" among the nations.

Rumania is accused of having acted without asking any authorization from Paris, of having deliberately refrained from availing the arrival of the four generals ordered to Budapest to the same control of the situation for the peace conference, of having on her own authority sought to impose a terribly onerous armistice upon Hungary in substitution for that concluded on November 13 by General Franchet d'Esperey and, finally, of having made the demands so excessive as to seriously offend the interests of the Czech-Slovak and Italian peoples.

Can Hold Out Six Months

It is admitted that Rumania has sufficient food and supplies to maintain the present situation in recognized, help from outside. That the Paris council is in a measure to blame for the present situation, is recognized, and the disarmament of Hungary was never enforced and no active steps were taken to break up the soviet army, which brought on the Rumanian invasion by its declaration of war on Rumania.

The Rumanian colony in Paris is jubilant, insisting that the peace conference deny offending their country by according it the same treatment as to the minority peoples of Poland, Czech-Slovakia and Jugoslavia.

The assertion in some Rumanian quarters that Rumania was never an "ally" in the full sense of the word, and hence not responsible to the conference, provokes amusement in American circles, where it is recalled that Rumanian representatives seeking financial aid from the United States—where they have already borrowed $3,000,000—always entered as their first argument the statement that their country was one of the Allied group.

Slavic Nations Roused

The Czech-Slovak and Jugoslav representatives here are watching developments with the gravest anxiety. Although the French government realizes that to encourage Rumania is equivalent to playing with dynamite, such influential newspapers as "Le Temps" and "Le Journal des Debats" are siding openly with the Rumanians and urge that the Rumanian ultimatum be allowed to stand. This attitude provokes the Socialist "L'Humanite" to ask:

"Admitting from the viewpoint of the older diplomacy that, in order to preserve independent Hungary, it was necessary to overthrow the soviet gov-

Relief Worker Says Tartars Will Swoop Down and Cut Lines That Feed People

PARIS, Aug. 9.—Two hundred thousand Armenians refugees in the Caucasus are on the verge of starvation and 300,000 more will be without food, it was stated here today by Walter George Smith, of Philadelphia and of the American Commission for Relief.

Smith said that the British troops, he said, constitute the only force that is keeping the Tartars and Kurds from breaking up the entire system of relief, on which the commission spent $25,000,000. As soon as these troops are withdrawn, as it was announced is to be done, these bands will swoop down upon the region, and the immense amount of money and the time and effort expended will have failed of their purpose.

BERLIN, Aug. 9 (By The Associated Press).—The first direct uncensored mail from America to Germany began arriving Wednesday, the letters received ranging from business communications, held up for weeks, months and even years by the English, to recent letters from three to five weeks old.

One bank communication more than three years old bore the seal of the British censor, but all recent letters were untouched, except by Germans, who, it is charged, might have been looking for money or for trade secrets.

Another shipment of nearly 1,800 sacks is due in Copenhagen the middle of August.

Lucerne Fears Hapsburgs

ROME, Aug. 9.—Commenting on the situation in Hungary, the "Popolo Romano" suggests the possibility that Archduke Joseph, the head of the new Hungarian government, is "aiming to restore the Hapsburg monarchy, and again join Vienna and Budapest."

"The annexation of Croatia and Slavonia may follow," the newspaper says, "as these two regions are even more bitter against the Serbians than against the Hungarians. The Hungarian empire, having lost only Galicia and Bukovina, then would consider Rome as its natural enemy. That is why Rome was refused us. We must keep an eye on Trieste also, the last remnants of the empire, having assumed the character of a political pit organized by pro-Austrian elements."
